

T. F. Leaders Plan for Boy Scout Events

Committees appointments and tentative plans for local observance of national Boy Scout Day, Feb. 18, were made at a meeting of Twin Falls district Scouters Thursday night at the Twin Falls county courthouse.

Tom Smith, district chairman in charge of the meeting, announced committee appointments for 1953. New committee members are S. L. Crowley and Lyman Engle, finance; Eugene White, Guy Bishop and George W. Miller, advancement; William Chaney and J. C. Smallwood, camping.

A. F. Nelson and Fred Abbott, health and safety; D. E. Johnson, Charles Koenig, John Anderson, organization and extension; and Chet Larson and W. B. Long, leadership training.

Chairmen committees are G. D. Miller with Wm. Ringers and Wayne Bauer, neighborhood commissioners.

Preliminary plans for Twin Falls man the state affairs committee, and the two educators appeared before the committee for five hours and a half to be selected in their opinions "Show-Me MICE and/or SICG," Buchanan said.

Buchanan said: "This is a most important question. Unfortunately, it is one to which there is no easy answer. It is a question that affects everybody. Mine is an answer that has been crystallizing in my mind in the long period of pondering since 1951."

Miller is: "Yes, if, or no unless."

"Yes, if" and "unless" refer to the question that before any recognition is taken the teacher's college first be given constitutional status.

Milich said that the decision for re-opening the two schools "is a responsibility which can not be delegated to anyone." It is a decision with the desires of the people of the state, he said.

He added: "I have indicated that my personal opinion is entirely conditional upon the extent to which the legislative and future legal action will be willing to contribute support to all levels of public education."

If there is major disagreement about either the available resources or the facilities available, it might be better to gain a direct mandate from Idaho's citizens' than involve subsequent sessions of this legislature in continued controversy.

Funeral services are pending under the direction of the Goodman mortuary.

Another Red Jet Downed in Raids

More Controls Are Sought on Medical Plans

HOUSE, Jan. 18 (UPI)—A proposed bill giving the state insurance commissioners power to control medical and medical corporations and providing more protection for subscribers had a trial run before the Senate insurance committee Thursday.

Senators and hospital plans criticized certain parts of it, but a suggestion by John Goplerud, manager of the North Idaho District Medical Service Bureau that the legislation include a trial rule allowing the commissioner to issue rules and regulations met with little favor by the senators.

NEW LAW Admitted

B. J. L. Insurance, an insurance company examiner, opposed the "law after a West Virginia statute." He said the present law is inadequate and the committees asked that a new law be written. He pointed out that the bill did not include a trial rule allowing the commissioner to issue rules and regulations met with little favor by the senators.

R. T. Jones, Boise, state Blue Cross executive director, said the plan would not cost capital and surplus such as insurance companies have since the hospitals guarantee medical service and the doctors guarantee medical service.

As now written, the bill would establish tighter fiscal control of the hospital and medical plans, prohibit payments for "unnecessary operations"—glaucoma, dental, etc.—and representation on boards of directors and in general, Abertson said, guarantee subscribers they would get the services they paid for. The meeting was to discuss changes to be made before the bill is sent to the Senate.

Lic O'Connell, insurance commissioner, said it was broad enough to cover future situations, and was not aimed at existing organizations, but applied to new organizations that wanted to make them flexible. He cited Washington's brief law which gives its commission broad regulatory powers as a possible model for Idaho.

Weaker Livestock Market Reported

A weaker market was noted for the weekly sale at the Twin Falls Livestock Commission company Wednesday as cattle totals 1,882.

All slaughter classes were 50 cents lower and in some instances cows and heifers declined as much as $1.00. Stockers and feeders were steady at good demand for all classes. Bulls declined $1 to $1.50 from the previous week's sale. The full report:

Good choice steers $22.50-$25; commercial hogs $20; $21.75-$22; utility steers $17.50-$17; good to choice heifers $18.75-$22; commercial to low heifers $18.50-$18.50; utility heifers $14-$16.50. Commercial cows $18-$17.50; utility cows $17-$16.50; bulls $15-$15.50. Commercial bulls $17.50-$19.50; utility bulls $15-$17; light bulls $13-$14.

Stockers and feeders—Good to choice steers $20-$25; commercial to low $18-$19; commercial hogs $20-$22; utility steers $17.50-$22; commercial to low heifers $18.50-$18.50; utility heifers $14-$16.50. Commercial cows $18-$17.50; utility cows $17-$16.50; bulls $15-$15.50. Commercial bulls $17.50-$19.50; utility bulls $15-$17; light bulls $13-$14.

It is noted that the protest was based upon safety considerations.

Burley Livestock Reported Steady

BURLEY, Jan. 16—An active sale with all classes steady to lower in sympathy with other markets was reported by the Burley Livestock Commission committee.

Quality and finish was lacking in 450 head of cattle at the sale in which no carlots were offered. The governor said Mrs. Johnson's air force son, Finletter declined to give an explanation.

Last Friday it was disclosed that the Aircraft Owners and Pilots association, a private organization, had requested the legislature to call it "this hazardous program."

The association noted that the planes were to fly as low as 2,000 feet and at speeds as high as 400 mph.

It added its protest was based upon safety considerations.

Funerals Attended

MICHTON, Jan. 16—Mourning services for Mrs. Howard Pitman, Mrs. Isabelle Kneibels and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pitman attended at the First Methodist Church.

Capt. Herman O. Gant, chief of the memorial division, sixth army band, San Francisco, Calif., and Maj. O. E. Neuhause, Ft. Douglas, Utah, will remember that the bodies of 37 Korean war veterans and three crew members of the army-chartered plane left until Saturday.

They decided deep snow and unfavorable weather prevented removal of the bodies now. Final disposition will be made by sixth army band.

The bodies and wreckage are buried in more than four feet of snow on an 8,700-foot peak.

THUGGER FINED

JEROME, Jan. 18—Arthur L. Draper, Umatilla, Ore., was fined $17 for costs by Justice of the Peace W. C. Draper. Draper was in charge of driving an overloaded truck. He was cited by State Patrolman L. W. Johnson, three miles west of Eden on highway 25.

Idaho Sets June 4 As Opening Date Of Trout Season

BOISE, Jan. 16 (AP)—Thursday, June 4, was set as "O" day in Idaho—the opening of the general trout season. The season will extend until Oct. 31 and nearly all major fishing regulations will be the same as last year. The state fish and game commission retained the bag limit at seven pounds and one fish, but not to exceed 20 fish, except in southeastern Idaho and the Birch creek area where the limit is not more than 15 fish.

Most trout lakes in Idaho will open to trout fishing from May 30—Nov. 30. A few exceptions will be made on lakes in which projects to eradicate trout fish were conducted.

Fishing hours shall be from 4 a.m. to 10 p.m., except in a few waters where night fishing is permitted.

Favorite fishing spots which will have a special late opening include: Payette lake and Hatchery creeks in Fremont county, July 1 to Oct. 31; Trinity lake, Roaring Smith creek and Lookout mountain, Minidoka and Owyhee counties, July 1 to Oct. 31; and Deadwood reservoir, and tributaries above Salmon creek downstream to mouth in Gem county, July 1-Aug. 31; and Deadwood reservoir and several lakes in Valley county, July 1 to Oct. 31.

James C. Simpson, state fish culturist, said the only major change from last year's regulations included closing of middle fork of Clearwater river above Ketchum, and the upper Salmon river upstream to mouth of Fish creek, Selway river upstream to Selway falls and south fork of Clearwater river upstream to the Washington power dam to whitetail and steelhead between Feb. 28 and June 4.

Vandals Hurt With Loss Of Ace Player

MOSCOW, Jan. 16 (AP)—Idaho's hopes of hitting the basketball comeback road in a two-game series against the University of Wyoming were dashed Saturday when sharpshooting Jim Flynn was hospitalized with a flu.

Flynn was taken to the hospital Tuesday with a temperature of 104. His doctor said Thursday he was better, but it is doubtful he will be able to play this weekend.

The Oregon Ducks, gunning for sole possession of first place in the northern division standings, arrived in Spokane Thursday night, and spent the night there.

To get a firm hold on the running totals, the Vandals will have to beat Idaho and rely on Washington to down the OSC quintet at Seattle. Flynn is the second Idaho man to be laid up this week. He missed the first game but also came into the fit but a bad ankle was expected to keep him out of action anyway.

Idaho Waters Opened For Fishing

BOISE, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Idaho fish and game commission Thursday authorized opening of waters to fishing in four areas effective Jan. 15.

The Coeur d'Alene river will be open to fishing from its mouth on Jan. 15 to Feb. 28, 1954, and the north fork of Snake river from Island Park upstream to 300 feet below the railroad trestle will be opened to fishing Jan. 15 to Feb. 28 of this year.

The Spirit Lake outlet was opened to all fishing from Jan. 15 until Dec. 31.

Opened-to-whitefish-and-steelhead from Jan. 15 to Feb. 28 were the north fork of the Clearwater river upstream to Elk creek; south fork of the Clearwater upstream to the dam at the mouth of the river; and the south fork of the Clearwater above Kooskia; Selway river upstream to Selway falls and Lochsa river upstream to Fish creek.

Beloise Seeks Sugar Ray Match In Patter, Not Batter This Time

By OSCAR FRATELY

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—Former middleweight challenger Steve Beloise has signed with Sugar Ray Robinson again Friday, this time it was in the patter—not the batter—department.

Beloise battled Robinson three years ago, but lost the bout when the "one-time" fighter had been when we shook hands."

"I never was carried out on a stretcher," Steve smiles, "but that was one of the few times I needed silver handles on my trunk."

Now, with Robinson turned into club entertainer, Beloise is getting ready to challenge Sugar Ray again.

He is a good deal of graduate from G.I. during World War II, as well as a boxer in his spare time—he was a one-man USO unit. Steve taught boxing, gave exhibitions and ad-libbed his school to stitches.

He is known as the gags writer instructor.

Even when he was earning his coffee and cake as a flutist, Steve had the nimble tongue. In a business meeting in the vernacular he used such occupations as "milkman" as a mouthful of marshmallows, punch intoxication, Steve blithely ignored convention to tell the boys: "I'm not good at this, but I'm not bad." And something happened to me, Steve smiles, "but that was one of the few times I needed silver handles on my trunk."

Truman ends last conference With "Chin up and No Tears"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—It was downright sentimental in place, but there were plenty laughs, too, and as an oldtimer said, "he went out with his chin up and no tears."

It hadn't always been that way.

President Roosevelt died, Harry S. Truman ran into some newsmen at the Capitol. There were tears then. He said he felt as though the weight of the world was on his shoulders.

And instead of asking for the newsmen's good wishes, he gave them his. He told them he hoped they would just as much like his "chin up" as they have had with him.

In his last meeting with the press Truman twice broke news conferences to speak to the reporters individually, shaking hands with every one of the 260 men and women who jammed the conference room.

To every one he said, "It was the second largest attendance since we last presented our new conference. That's on April 17, 1945, drew 347."

He broke precedent again by ending the conference himself instead of leaving it to his chief of staff, White House reporter on hand to say, "Thank you, Mr. President." Instead of taking the reporters' thanks, he gave them his.

Truman ended frequently for landmarks and set them. Alluding once to a communication to congress he remarked that he'd sent another letter. As a writer of tart letters, some of which had gotten him in hot water, he was asked if he had any more to say.

When they asked, he said he thought that would get them.

Truman dished out a lot of page-one news at his last conference, but he spent most of his time in free time talking about the lot of any ex-President.

He said "this chief executive of the United States" is going to have to start beginning meals after 10:30 A.M. so that he can get to the office getting a lot of invitations and so won't have to go hungry.

But Truman was serious when he talked about the presidency. Some
